

Sample Interview Questions

How do you think you can apply what you've learned in school to your work here?

How do you hope to complement your education through your work here?

What goals do you have for this internship?

What would make you a unique asset to this office?

What is your greatest accomplishment?

Why would we choose you over other candidates?

Which political figure do you admire the most, and why?

Why are you applying for this internship?

What is your greatest strength?

What is your greatest weakness?

What characteristics could you bring to the office?

What experiences outside of school have prepared you for this internship?

Would you describe yourself as an introvert or an extrovert and why?

How would you rate your ability to work independently?

How well do you work on group projects?

What are your long-term goals?

If you could intern in any office, which would it be and why?

Give an example of a time you were faced with a problem and how you solved it?

Describe the way you work with others and the role you play?

When a supervisor assigns you a project do you ask questions before you begin, or do you begin the project and ask questions later? Why?