

CV

Ibrahim Shliek
1541 Meadow St APT#321C
Denton TX 76205
Phone: 425-329-9170
IbrahimShliek@my.unt.edu

EDUCATION

- Since 2014 University of North Texas, Ph. D. student, Political Science [SEP]
- 2006 Master's Degree, Political Sciences, Academy of postgraduate Studies-Tripoli-Libya. The title of thesis: (The Political Rectification in the Arab Countries in the Shadow of the International Stage).
- 1999 Bachelor Degree, Political Sciences, University of Sebha-Libya.

TRAINING COURSES

- 2005 Empirical Studies in the Field of Social Sciences.
- 2006 The content analysis technologies.

Employment History

- 2006 to 2008 TA, Azzaytuna University-Libya Tripoli.
 - 2006 to 2008 TA, Tripoli University-Libya Tripoli.
 - 2018 TA University of North Texas
- During my work as assistant lecturer, I taught the following subjects:
- ❖ Policy Ruling in Islam.
 - ❖ Comparative Political Systems.
 - ❖ Human Rights.
- Political Analysis in the Middle East and North Africa.
 - Participating in over 30 live interviews in international channels.

Area of Interest

- Comparative Politics, and International Relations. (Civil war, Ethnic Conflict, Democratization, Consociational Democracies, Political Stability, and Regional conflict).

Publications

- Shliek, Ibrahim. 2008. "The Political Rectification in the Arab Countries in the Shadow of the International Stage." Academy of postgraduate Studies- Tripoli-Libya:1-222.

CV

Ibrahim Shliek

1541 Meadow St APT#321C

Denton TX 76205

Phone: 425-329-9170

IbrahimShliek@my.unt.edu

- Shliek, Ibrahim. 2016. "Consociational Democracies, Political Stability and External Intervention." The Libyan Organization Of Public Policies & Strategies (LOOPS):1–36.

Working Papers

- Consociational Democratic System and Ethnicization and Politicization.
- Consociational Democratic System and Democratic Development.
- Consociational Democracies, Political Stability and External Intervention.
- Overseas Military Bases and Foreign Economic Investment.
- Overseas Democratic Imposition.
- Democratic Development, Oil Rents, and Capital Movement.
- Regional Conflict and Democratic Development in the Middle East and North Africa.
- Consociationalism, Federalism and Political Violence: Comparing the effects of institutional solutions in conflict prone and non-conflict societies.

Dissertation Proposal

- Rethinking Consociationalism and Majoritarianism Performance: The Challenge of Trans-border Ethnic Kinship